SWISS TECH CONVENTION CENTER

This Life Sciences Symposium, co-organised by EPFL & EMBO Press, will be held from 24 to 26 October 2017 (2.5 days) on the EPFL campus in Lausanne-Switzerland, at the SwissTech Convention Center.

The Symposium will enable rich scientific interactions to take place and provide a fantastic opportunity for Doctoral students, Post-Doctoral fellows and Senior scientists to discuss with leaders in their field.

In addition this year 3 public lectures on the first evening will address key issues regarding metabolism and society. We expect more than 300 people to attend this event.

The Swiss Tech Convention Center on the EPFL campus. An exceptional place to meet and exchange ideas.
